Who shall submit this form?

A PERSON WHO MOVES TO NORWAY for a period of six months or more, or who is taking up residence must report the move to a tax office in Norway; cf. the National Registration Act section 8, paragraph 2. You report a move by completing and delivering this form. Special rules apply for commuters from countries within the European Economic Area (includes the European Union). For further information contact the tax office.

How do you deliver this form?

EVERYONE WHO IS COVERED BY THIS NOTIFICATION MUST APPEAR IN PERSON AT ONE OF THE 42 SELECTED TAX OFFICES within eight days after arrival. You must all bring a passport or other valid ID which shows your nationality. If you are a foreign national of a country other than the Nordic countries, you must additionally show a residence permit which is valid for six months or more, alternatively proof of registration with the police authority (applies to non-Nordic EU/EEA/EFTA nationals and their families). If you are a Nordic national who is moving from a Nordic country, a driving licence and a transcript from the country's National Population register is adequate ID. You will find the addresses of these tax offices at taxnorway.no.

A Which persons have moved?

In this form you can report a move to Norway for yourself, several or everyone in your household who is moving with you. For children under the age of 18, it is the person or persons with parental responsibility, who has a duty to report the move and sign the notification.

You who are obligated to notify of move from abroad must also sign the notification. You can sign on behalf of your spouse, cohabitant, partner or children under the age of 18 that you have parental responsibility for, if you yourself are included in this form. If you have shared parental responsibility and are moving from a Nordic country, then the other parent must also sign. If you are moving from a non-Nordic country then only one of the parents who is moving with the child needs to sign. Everyone who signs must be over the age of 18. If the notification of a move only covers children under the age of 18, those who have parental responsibility or (provisional) guardian status must sign.

I confirm that the information stated in this form is correct. It is a criminal offence to supply incorrect information or withhold information.
